Answer: B) Offers lump-sum benefits upon diagnosis of specific serious illnesses.

Explanation:

Critical illness insurance pays a lump sum upon diagnosis of covered illnesses such as cancer, heart attack, or stroke. Its purpose is to help cover expenses related to the illness, such as treatment costs or income replacement, but its primary feature is the payment of a lump sum rather than ongoing income.

Retirement Savings and Investments

Question 3:

In a registered retirement savings plan (RRSP), contributions are:

- A) Deductible from taxable income in the year they are made.
- B) Taxable when withdrawn.
- C) Not subject to taxes at any point.
- D) Only allowed if the individual is over age 50.

Answer: A) Deductible from taxable income in the year they are made.

Explanation:

RRSP contributions are tax-deductible, which reduces your taxable income for the year of contribution. Taxes are deferred until withdrawal, at which point the funds are taxed as income. Option B describes the tax treatment of withdrawals, not contributions. Option D is incorrect because RRSP contributions are available to individuals under age 50; the contribution limit is set annually.

Ethics and Professional Conduct

Question 4:

An insurance agent recommends a policy that benefits the agent financially, even though it may not be in the client's best interest. This behavior is considered:

- A) Ethical and acceptable if the agent discloses the benefit.
- B) A conflict of interest and a violation of professional ethics.
- C) Standard practice in the insurance industry.
- D) Permitted if the client signs a waiver.

Answer: B) A conflict of interest and a violation of professional ethics.

Explanation:

Agents are ethically obligated to act in their clients' best interests, avoiding conflicts of interest. Recommending a policy primarily for personal gain, without full disclosure or consideration of the client's needs, breaches ethical standards and professional conduct rules.

Canadian Insurance Laws and Regulations

According to Canadian law, who is responsible for licensing and regulating insurance agents?

- A) The federal government through the Department of Finance.
- B) The provincial insurance regulators.
- C) The Canadian Insurance Association.
- D) The individual insurance companies.

Answer: B) The provincial insurance regulators.
