Understanding the Benchmark Series and the Vantage Level

The Context of the Benchmark Series

The Benchmark series is designed to provide learners with a structured, progressive pathway through different language proficiency stages. It caters to learners who have achieved an intermediate level – typically B1 to B2 on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) – and who are seeking to refine their skills to reach an upper intermediate or advanced proficiency.

The series emphasizes integrated skills development, real-world language use, and learner autonomy, preparing students for academic pursuits, workplace communication, and social integration.

Defining the Vantage Level

The Vantage designation corresponds approximately to the B2 level of the CEFR. Learners at this stage should be able to:

- Understand the main ideas of complex texts on both concrete and abstract topics.
- Communicate with a degree of fluency and spontaneity that makes regular interaction with native speakers quite possible.
- Produce clear, detailed text on a wide range of subjects, explaining a viewpoint and presenting arguments.

The Benchmark Upper Intermediate Vantage thus aims to bridge the gap between intermediate fluency and advanced mastery, emphasizing nuanced language use, critical thinking, and contextual understanding.

The Benchmark Vantage relies heavily on the principles of communicative language teaching (CLT), emphasizing meaningful interaction and real-life language use. Its tasks often simulate authentic situations like negotiations, presentations, and debates, which foster learner engagement and confidence.

Focus on Autonomous Learning

The materials are designed to foster learner independence. For instance, the inclusion of self-assessment checklists, reflection prompts, and online practice encourages learners to take ownership of their progress.

Use of Authentic Materials
